PRICE 2 CENTS

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the badge of HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or the derangement of the feminine organs, you can do no better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and legal treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of women's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privilege. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

SUIT WITHDRAWN.

Evelyn Thaw's suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry K. Thaw, which has been pending before Referee Robert E. Deyo in New York and has been adjourned from time to time since May 11, was discontinued yesterday upon motion by Evelyn Thaw's counsel, Daniel O'Reilly. Leave to withdraw the suit, without costs, was granted by the referee, as the motion was not opposed by Col. Franklin Bartlett, counsel for Mr. Harry Thaw's counsel.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has within the past three weeks had agents in Pittsburg gathering data with which to fight the Thaw family in their now openly announced intention to keep her out of control of the estate of her husband.
Her decision not to push her case for the annulment of her marriage was made after the report of her Pittsburg agents was made known.

That Harry K. Thaw has handled his own estate practically since he became of age, seventeen years ago, or two years after the death of his father, will be the contention of Evelyn.

A dispatch from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., says that Mrs. William Thaw spent all yesterday morning with her son Thaw refused to answer a note inquiring if the report of a reconciliation between his wife and himself was true.

MORE DISORDER.

There was more disorder yesterday in the street car strike in Chester, Pa., and a spirit of unrest is manifest. Late in the afternoon a car on the Wilmington line was blocked on the outskirts of the city by strike sympathizers, who had put stones on the track. When the motorman and conductor attempted to remove the obstruction they were stoned and had to leave the car. A wrecking car was sent out to bring the stalled car back, but before it reached the scene the crowd had broken every window.

District Organizer Shea, of the workers, issued a statement last night, in which he advised against disorderly violence. He said that the strike was won, and that the traction company would have to give in. President Riggs replied that there would be no compromise.

"The street railway strike in Cleveland will proceed," said Vice President Behner, of the Railway Men's Union of that city last night. President Du Pont of the Municipal Traction Company, said the strike was broken.

An effectual stop was put to all further efforts at arbitration yesterday by the declaration of President Du Pont that he would arbitrate nothing that might interfere with the men now at work.

SHOT BY YOUNG WOMAN.

While a policeman was searching her for the revolver she had threatened to use, Lillian Scott, a 16-year-old girl, in New York yesterday afternoon pulled the weapon from her stocking and shot John Dorman, 19 years old, who says he is a clerk, as they stood at a street corner in Williamsburg. After firing two shots the girl was disarmed and taken to court where, in a hysterical condition, she accused the youth of mistreating her and telling scurrilous stories about her.

Just before the shooting Dorman had approached Policeman Hockmeister and told him that a girl he knew was following him and had told him to say his prayers, as she was going to kill him.
Hockmeister went with Dorman, who pointed out the girl standing in a doc-way. As Hockmeister started to search the girl's waist she flashed the revolver out and shot Dorman through the left part of the thigh. A second shot hit the sidewalk, and before the girl could again pull the trigger she was disarmed and arrested. At the City Court Street John Miss Scott collapsed.

Pills for about a year and I give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold

BARONESS RIVALS SONG BIRDS.

A dispatch from Paris says Baroness Jean de l'Espee, whose mother, Countess Soltyk, is a niece of the Confederate General Robert E. Lee, is now a society singer who imitates the notable stars of the cafes chantants. She has had great success and her mother is very proud of the fact that the baroness rivals the best singers of the Ambassadors and the Alcazar.

The Countess Soltyk is noted as one of the best dinner hostesses in Paris.
Her chef has been with her for 26 years and he has the reputation of inventing a new dish every week. Madame Soltyk lives in a splendid apartment at No. 2 Rue Paul Brindley and is said to desire that her friends forget she is an American. [This will be news to General Lee's friends in this country who never heard of such a "niece"]
